

LEADERSHIP 1 WEEK 1

Session 1 – Developing a philosophy of ministry

1. The heart of a servant is the fruit of the love nature of God.

True - False

2. My faith as a leader cannot and will not work without the love of God in action.

True - False

3. The love of God will cause me to:

A – have patience with those who serve – B – Never speak ill of anyone I serve
C – See others the way Jesus sees them D – All of the above

4. It's important for us to have a revelation of God's love for _____ before we can have genuine love for _____ .

5. The call of God is typically observed by others when we are preparing for ministry.

True - False

6. Our primary calling in life is to know _____, everything else flows out of that relationship.

Session 2 – Developing good habits

1. When you develop your own story and testimony, you are born an _____ and won't die a _____.

2. Cultivating and growing yourself in the Lord will cause God to put the spotlight on you (by others). True - False

3. In preparation (for any ministry), it is more important to prepare _____ rather than a lesson or a message.

4. Praying in the Holy Ghost (according to Isaiah 28:11 we read tonight) will make
A – Supernatural arrangements for me B – cause me to shine C – make me a powerhouse D – make others think I am holy

Session 3 – Supernatural Ministry vs. the business of ministry

1. “Visions of grandeur” is a dangerous condition that I need to avoid.

True - False

2. Doing what God told YOU to do is the most important thing; we need to stay in our lane, or “stay the _____”.

3. You can’t build on a foundation where you are willing to compromise your character.

True – False

4. Seminars, conferences, and other people’s messages are great; you can get great _____ but you can only build on _____.