CONSENT FOR RELEASE OF STUDENT FILE INFORMATION

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of a student's educational records. Educational records include financial aid records and transcripts which are considered confidential and will not be released without written consent from the student. In accordance with FERPA, it is necessary for XploreNations Bible College to obtain written consent from a student in order to release any financial aid, grade or billing information.

I hereby grant XploreNations Eugene Bible College permission to release any information regarding my student files to parties outside the College in accordance with the specifications I have indicated below.

I understand that this consent for release will remain in effect only from the date of signing until the end of the 2023-2024 academic year. (Students wishing to rescind this release may do so by submitting written notification.)

I give my consent to release the specific information indicated below from my financial aid file or student files to the following parties:
